Q: WHEN DO YOU THINK, “MAN, I LOVE WHAT I DO”?

A: I love it when listening to mock jurors deliberate and I have an aha moment of insight into the driving force behind a particular juror’s viewpoint.

EXPERIENCE

Dr. Dellapaolera is an expert at the intersection between law and psychology and understanding how jurors process information and make decisions in deliberations.

Her strategic experience includes:

Case review and evaluation to identify key evidence and persuasive themes that will resonate with jurors.

Identification of areas in dispute that require testing and developing a corresponding research design that produces high quality jury research.

Development of community attitude surveys to evaluate the trial venue and identify predictors of plaintiff and defense support to inform jury selection.

Assistance with jury selection in state and federal courts nationwide including juror questionnaires, voir dire questions and individual juror analysis.

ROLE

As a Litigation Consultant for JurySync, Dr. Dellapaolera applies her passion for research and expertise in social psychology and law to help trial attorneys and their clients discover what drives juror decision-making in their case.

EDUCATION

Dr. Dellapaolera earned her PhD in Social Psychology and a Master of Legal Studies (MLS) from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. She also holds a BA in Psychology from the University of North Dakota in Grand Forks, ND.
